A Word From the Board

Thank you all who attending our Annual Meeting last month! We are very happy with the flow of the meeting and feedback we received suggests you feel the same. The main points that came out of the meeting were naming the elected board members and discussing the 2020 goals the BOD would like to focus on, including financial planning and improving relationships within the community. Budgeting for the upcoming year will be complete by Dec. 1st to include in our annual statement. This will be mailed out to each homeowner once finalized.

All applicants for the BOD were voted and approved at the annual meeting. After recently meeting the assignments were distributed according to preference and strengths of each individual. Please take the time to congratulate and thank each of the members for their continued support.

Community Updates

Treasurer: 2020 budgeting will be finalized before the annual report is distributed and a reserve study will be utilized to ensure long term financial stability.

ARC: All ARC requests can be sent directly to the committee at myersmillarc@gmail.com. Please remember that requests must be emailed in PDF.

Compliance: The committee will be reviewing and revising the checklist criteria for community inspections.

Pool: The pool season ended as of Oct. 15th. The Pool committee is looking for volunteers to help put put the furniture away and complete winterization.

Activities: See committee highlight below.

Landscaping: The landscaping crew continues to improve, please reach out if anything needs to be addressed.

Nature Trail: As the temperatures drop now is the perfect time to get out there and enjoy the nature trail that wrabs around from Blair to McKayla. Be sure to keep the trails clean and be respectful.

Communications: We are still looking for website sponsors costs range from $45 to $75. Email myersmillcom@gmail.com for details.
